

Press Note

“Fast Food Course Organized for Prisoners in Satara Jail”

A fast food training course is started for male prisoners in the prison in collaboration with Mukul Madhav Foundation, Pune and Mumbai College of Hotel Management & Catering Technology and Satara District Jail.

Under the guidance of Maharashtra Prison Police Department Additional Director General of Police and Inspector General, Prisons and Corrections Services, Dr. Suhas Warke, Special Inspector General of Police Dr. Jalindar Supekar, Deputy Inspector General of Prisons Swati Sathe.

As per the motto of the Prison Department “Reformation and Rehabilitation” various activities have been ordered to be implemented for the prisoners in the prison. Accordingly, various training-oriented activities are being implemented in Satara District Jail.

While giving guidance, Mukul Madhav Foundation member Santosh Shelar said that, his organization is implementing many training activities for the prisoners in the prison. Many other activities like fast food courses and various medical health camps for the prisoners will also be implemented in this prison.

Mumbai College of Hotel Management and Catering Technology, Satara, representative Mr. Vinod Jadhav said that such an activity for the prisoners in the prison is a first and innovative initiative for his college. If the prison administration permits, we are eager to do more various activities for the prisoners through our college.

Senior Jailor Dnyaneshwar Dubey said that, our administration always organizes various activities and health camps for the prisoners in the prison. It is our effort that the prisoners also take full advantage of these activities and get out of the prison after being trained.

While concluding the program Prison Superintendent Shamkant Shedge, said that as per the guidance of all the senior officers of the prison department and according to the motto of the prison department “Reformation and Rehabilitation”, every prisoner admitted to the prison is first and foremost a human being and the prison administration is always working to give the person an opportunity to reform. As a part of this, in order to save the time of most of the youth and young people currently in prison, a “Fast Food” course has been started through Mukul Madhav Foundation, Pune and Mumbai College of Hotel Management and Catering Technology, Satara. Through this course, the prisoners will be taught various dishes like Panipuri, Ragdapuri, Kachori, Vadapav, Misalpav, Samosa, Fasting Patties, Onion Bhaji, Potato Bhaji, Gobi Manchurian, Veg Manchurian, Hakka Noodles, Fried Rice, Veg Momos, Burger, Pasta, Pizza. Our aim is always to reform and reintegrate the youth who have committed crimes while in the society and ended up in prison.

At the inauguration of this program, Mukul Madhav Foundation representative Santosh Shelar, College of Hotel Management representative Vinod Jadhav, Jail Superintendent Shamkant Shedge, Senior Jailor Dnyaneshwar Dubey, Subedar Mansingh Bagal, Havaldar Darku Pardhi, Constable Rakesh Pawar, Balaji Munde, Raviraj Shelke and other staff were present.