action police officer from Dattawadi police station seems to have set a nice example amili the pandemic crisis. In a fine show of commitment towards his duty and remaining responsible towards his family at the same time, the serior copichose not to writ thouse since the lockdown was armounced in March this year. Irutead, he took shelter in a small remedaccommodation in his jurisdiction to ensure that he is available for duty cound the clock.

As a result, Devidas Gheware, the officer is question, could not even dropply to wish his wife on her birthday. To make up for missing out on being with his spouse on her special day, he posted a video on Facebook and wished her with a terider apology around 12.30 amon Saturday, in his wish, senior impector Gheware said, "Wish you a happy birthday Varsha. I am sorry due to "OVID-19, I could not be with you on your birthday. This time is tough and I am performing duty at Dandekar bridge. Kindly accept my birthday wishes, I pray for you and I am always with you jaid." His wife Varsha Gheware, who is a deputy superintendentof police with Pune CID herself, basis-posted the video on her Facebook timeline, expressing her gratitude.

pasteposed on viscoon interace accross timesine, expressing her gratitude.

Dathawadi police station, which is centrally located and bordered by several sleams, has booked some 771 people, under section 188 for the Indian Fernal Code (IPC) for disobedience to order duly promitigated by public servants, the most number of offenders to be booked in a jurisdiction. There are six big shams in the vicinity, including Janua Vasahat, Part Mala, Amidi Odha, Ganeshmala, Parvati Darshan and Shivdarshari. While residents of Jastat Vasahat are following the lock-down rules, the other settlements are proving to be a challenge for Dattawadi police, officials claim. Besidents are unable to maintain social distancing since the accommodations are camped. Also using consumot toilets increases the chance of contracting the infection among the sliam duediers for authorities.

disclices, feel authorities. Senior impector Gheware, in charge of Dattawall police station, and his team are on the frontimes, trying to keep the people in their jurisdiction rafe. Gheware has also been generating awareness among the locals. He has prepared a 3D lenage of coronavirus and posted a creative nessage on it. The catchy pictures and captions convey the seriousness of the pandemic in simple terms. He even put up banners and flexes in the slums to allert people about the virus.

the slums to alert people about the virus.
Explaining the challenge of working in such populated areas. Gheware told Mirror, "We get calls at midnight from the slums. Instead of wairing for my staff to handle the situation, I report there myself. This inspires my team as well."
When ask about maintaining distancing

When ask about maintaining distancing from his family, the officer said, "This helps me ensure the safety of my family members and be available for work 24/7. If we get a calf from the slums, informing about any patient, we have to reach the spot, calf the ambulance and make other arrangements."

The officer has provided face masks, gloves and sanitisers for the safety of his officers as well. Gheware joined the police force in 1990. His first postingwasin Gadehiroli and later he wasposted in Mumbai, Thame and Pune.

Lai hind Salute to all police staff

harshit_singh_121 This video is saying so many things, we all should stay back to home and support police, doctors and bankers. It's no holidays for them but if we cooperate with them, it will be more than holidays for them

A bee hive had appeared suddenly in our bedroom window. Called many numbers....
